Intha Glenn Honored With Bridal Party

The wedding of Intha Glenn and Sgt. John A. Cox of Biloxi, Mississippi within the next few weeks was the incentive for a bridal shower for the bride-elect at the home of Mrs. L. Beckett, 1888 W. 261st street.

An enormous decorated cake bearing two large decorated hearts in powder blue and pink and white roses centered the refreshment table. At a late hour the cake was served with ice cream and coffee.

Mrs. Phyllis Mathews, Mrs. Lucy Kergan and Mrs. Carolyn Graham were awarded prizes in the games played and the honoree was presented with many lovely gifts.

In the group were Hettie B. Jackson, Evelyn Vandette, Ella Knox of Long Beach; Henrietta Russell, Ethel Grey of San Pedro; Jo Stewart, Frances Oakes, Wilmington; Lillian Faulkner, Hazel Allen, Torrance; Mrs. Lloyd W. Beckett Jr. and children, Helen Marie and Linda Lee of Waco, Texas; Dorothy Faulkner, Ida Boyd, Phyllis Mathews, Pearl Washburn, Elizabeth Kjelland, Lillian Kittila, Ruth Parr, Grace Han, Lucy Kergan, Rita Wyckoff, Virginia Thomas, Florence Washburn, Carolyn Graham, Helmi Chudy, Peggy McElroy, Bernice Snow and the hostess, Mrs. Beckett.

The bride-elect left Sunday with Lt. Lloyd Beckett and family for Waco, Texas where she will visit for several days awaiting the arrival of Sgt. Cox from Biloxi, Mississippi.

BRIDAL PAIR LEAVE CHURCH . . . Yeoman Henry Alvin Dickey, USN, and his lovely bride, the former Lauretta June Ashmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ashmon of 25424 Cypress street, were married at First Methodist Church, San Pedro Saturday evening.—(Bob Roberts photo)

Navy Man Takes Lauretta Ashmon For His Bride

The First Methodist Church in San Pedro was the setting for wedding rites which united in marriage Miss Lauretta June Ashmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ashmon, 25424 Cypress street, and Yeoman, first class, Henry Alvin Dickey, U. S. Navy, of Astoria, Oregon Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

Rev. Fred Ross, church pastor, read the marriage lines before the altar banked with white gladiolus and stock.

Traditional white satin was worn by the bride with the yoke of her gown of white net and seed pearls and the full skirt complete with a long train. A crown of seed pearls caught up the bridal veil of net and she wore a single strand of pearls at her throat, a gift of the groom. Her bouquet was of red rose-buds and she was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Irredell Garrett of Riverside.

Attending the bride were her two sisters, Mrs. Della Garrett of Riverside, as matron of honor and Mrs. Biddie Pearl Dennis. Attired alike in pink taffeta, the two sisters carried pink and white carnations.

Little Lynda Kaye Garrett, niece of the bride, as flower girl, wore a full length dress of pink organdy with a corsage of sweet peas. Preceding the bride party to the altar she scattered pink rose petals from a dainty basket on her arm.

Yeoman Dickey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Ray of Fontanelle, Iowa, was attended by Robert Hines, USN, as best man and Leonard Surrey, USN, who formed a guard of honor for the bridal party as they left the church.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Edna Sandstrom sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

A reception followed in the lovely yard of the Ashmon home in Lomita surrounded by shrubbery and summer flowers. The three-tiered cake, topped with a miniature navy man and bride, was served with other refreshments to a large group of guests. Among those from out of town was the groom's cousin, Miss Dorothy Lowry of Portland, Oregon.

VARIETY SHOW IS SUCCESS

A crowd of 350 attended the Father's Hi-Jinks and Variety Show sponsored by Normont Parent-Teacher Association Friday night in the social hall at Normont Terrace.

Highlighting the program was the mock PTA meeting, a skit presented by the men of the association including Max Garver, Robert Finley, C. Yates, Charles Halls from, Carl Westfall, J. Wear, Pearson, school principal, M. Richardson, and F. Conner. Attired in women's clothing the men created considerable amusement as they performed their antics in conducting their version of a PTA meeting.

A musical program of note completed the two-hour show which was followed by the serving of refreshments. Diana Anderson, Jerry Kimberling, Maggot, Mata and David Martinez presented a hula dance accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Willson; Lyle Green, saxophone solo; Sally and Mary Carmen Ochoa, Spanish dance; students of Mrs. Alice Bryant's class gave the play titled "The King with The Terrible Temper." A piano solo followed by Mary Yates; vocal solo, Gretchen Field; saxophone solo, Paul Hoffman; musical numbers by the Normont chorus and orchestra directed by Mrs. Helen Simonek; a piano solo by Leland Green, and Spanish dance by Romelle Ponce.

Mrs. Robert Finley presented the program and refreshments were sold during the evening.

Dinner Will Benefit Club

The public has been invited to support the benefit dinner to be served at the social hall of the Lomita Presbyterian Church Saturday night, June 10 by the Men's Club of the church.

Served in cafeteria style the committee in charge states that turkey will be the main entrée with two others offered for those who do not care for fowl. A complete dinner service will be attractively arranged complete with dessert and serving will begin at 4:30 and will continue to 8 p.m.

Keen Interest Shown in Community Flower Show

Considerable interest already is being shown in the Community Flower Show to be held at Lomita Park June 24 and 25, according to Mrs. George D. Hunt, general chairman. Inquiries pouring in from children as well as adults and requests for reservations by amateur and commercial growers indicates that the 90 by 63 foot space in the Lomita Park building where the display is to be held will be transformed into a fairland of beauty.

Judging of exhibits and awarding of ribbons will precede the opening of the show at 3 p.m. Saturday. The program on Sunday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. will be highlighted by selections by a five-piece Los Angeles County band, and colored slides of the newest fuchsia introductions.

There will be no entry fees or admission charges, committee members said today. The Lomita area branch of the California Fuchsia Society, and the L. A. County Department of Parks and Recreation have issued the following schedule of divisions for the guidance of persons planning to enter exhibits: section 1, flower arrangement; 2, specimen blooms; 3, cut flowers; 4, potted plants; 5, rare and unusual plants, orchids, etc.; 6, garden arrangements; 7, school exhibits; 8, hanging baskets; 9, commercial exhibits.

John Ericson, Fuchsia Club president, states that subdivisions, rules and regulations for those planning to make entries will be published at a later date.
